

Increasing Area

Teacher Activity

Suppose there is a town in the shape of a square with a side of X miles. The town keeps its square shape over the years, but its boundaries grow so that each side of the square increases by a half mile each year.

Make a sketch of the town after 1 year of growth. Shade in the portion of the town that represents the increase in area.